THE GAZETTE could not ante-date its offer to the subscriber without doing so for all of those who subscribed prior to the 11th of January, 1891, and to apply this offer to all who were subscribers to THE GAZETTE on the 10th of January would cost THE GAZETTE more than it could afford to do, even for Texas.

England Advised to Make Haste Slowly in Regard to the Dardanelles Incident—International Catholic Congress.

[Copyright 1891 by the Associated Press.]

BREITENBURG, Sept. 5.—The conference between Chancellor von Caprivi and Count Kaloky ended yesterday at 11 o'clock. The conference was held in the Reichstag building. The conference was held in the Reichstag building.

The North German Gazette holds that the port's assent to the claims of Russia is less important than the fact that the Russian government is not yet ready to make a concession in the Dardanelles incident. The tone of the official press here indicates distinctly that the government is averse to joining England in its hostile attitude against the port's agreement with Russia.
